4. Attendance 21 participants
 1. Dr. Bauer - SSU President
 - Closing down residential sites Nov. 24
 - There will still be some classes after Thanksgiving break, but will be online unless special circumstances and accommodations will be made for those
 - COVID numbers have picked up recently on campus and in the county
 - Eliminated fall break and veterans day to hold classes at those times to get in-seat classes before thanksgiving anticipating uptakes of cases during this time, which is now happening
 - Overall we have done a great job, but we just don't want to see students going home and bringing back the virus and transmitting it to other students
 - Refund question: there will be refunds for housing and meal plans, but terms have not been finalized yet, but will be after break
 - Update on attending sporting events: Doesn't see fans being allowed until Spring and he is hopeful that fans will be allowed at that time.
